- The 20-day DoloMeet GUEST CARD gives the right, during the period of validity, to 6 round trips on the above-mentioned Madonna di Campiglio and Pinzolo lifts, even on non-consecutive days. For the purposes of lift counts, the Grostè I and II trunk cable cars are considered as a single lift, as well as the Pinzolo-Pra Rodont and Pra Rodont-Doss del Sabion cable cars

The cost of the cards is not linked to the number and type of lifts open to the public. The functioning of all lifts is not guaranteed. However, the APT is not responsible, and therefore, no refund is due, if, as a result of unforeseen events which are in any way beyond their control (including, for example, high winds, the sudden onset of an unforeseeable technical problem, the sudden and unannounced interruption of the electricity supply) results in the partial or total shutdown of the lifts. Additionally, APT — which is therefore not liable for any reimbursement and/or compensation — is not liable should the card holder incur expenses to return to his/her place of residence or departure if the lifts are closed in accordance with the scheduled times indicated at the departure stations or close early due to force majeure. On the chairlifts, the transport of children under the age of eight is only allowed if accompanied by an adult. The price of the card includes the right to transport a small, unobtrusive bag with a maximum weight of 10 kg, mountain bikes and dogs with muzzles and kept on a lead. The card must be shown at the request of Funivie Madonna di Campiglio SpA and Funivie Pinzolo SpA lift operators, who must be able to verify its validity and the validity of the card holder's membership. The use of the lifts is governed by the relevant rules of each of the two companies (Funivie Madonna di Campiglio SpA and Funivie Pinzolo SpA), to which explicit reference is made and with which the card holder must scrupulously comply.

b. Tourist mobility and parking facilities in the Park's valleys. All types of the DOLOMEET GUEST CARD and DOLOMEET PASSION CARD, for the entire period of their validity, allow free access to tourist mobility and parking spaces via the online reservation service on the PNAB and APT websites. The use of shuttles and car parks is governed by the relevant rules issued by PNAB, to which explicit reference is made and with which the holder of the DOLOMEET GUEST CARD must strictly comply. The use of tourist mobility is governed by the relevant rules issued by the service providers, to which explicit reference is made and with which the holder of the DOLOMEET GUEST CARD must strictly comply. Shuttles and parking can be reserved (necessary for some services) on the APT website or on the PNAB website.

c. Bike bus, shuttle for transporting bikes and cyclists: All types of the DOLOMEET GUEST CARD and DOLOMEET PASSION CARD, for the entire period of their validity, allow free use of the shuttle for cyclists on the route: Carisolo-Tione route and vice versa (€2 for bike transport, to be paid on site) and for the Carisolo-Dimaro route.

The DOLOMEET GUEST CARD must be shown to drivers each time, who must be able to verify its validity and rightful membership of the user. The bicibus can also transport pedestrians who, if they own a DOLOMEET GUEST CARD, will use the service for free. Priority is always given to guests with bikes.
